

MRVF-127

EAST CENTRAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

PRESENTS

BRADLEY ROBBINS

Recipient of the Mississippi Humanities Council Teacher Award 2025

"Modern Mythology in Professional Wrestling"

March 18, 2025

2 p.m.

Thomas W. Thrash Auditorium

Bradley Robbins
English Instructor
East Central Community College

Bradley Robbins is a 2003 graduate of Clinton High School.

He holds an Associate of Arts degree in liberal arts from East Central Community College, a bachelor's degree in secondary education with a concentration in English from Mississippi State University, a master's degree in secondary education with a concentration in English from the University of West Alabama, and an educational specialist degree in educational leadership from the University of Mississippi. He is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in educational leadership from Liberty University.

Robbins is an English instructor at East Central Community College, where he oversees dual credit English composition courses as lead teacher and serves on the Instructional Advisory Committee. He also teaches American literature and African American literature.

Previously, Robbins was an assistant principal at Bettye Mae Jack Middle School in Morton, Mississippi. Before that, he taught for 12 years at Sebastopol Attendance Center, where he sponsored the Beta Club, drama club, and yearbook. He was named Teacher of the Year in 2022 and was recognized as an MEC STAR Teacher in 2014, 2017 and 2018.

Robbins is an ordained bishop in the Cleveland, Tennessee-based Church of God. He has served on the Mississippi Church of God Youth & Discipleship Board and is currently associate pastor at All Seasons Worship Center in Forest, Mississippi.

He is married to Kristi Robbins of Meridian, Mississippi. They have two sons, Joseph, 12, and Daniel, 8.

PROGRAM

Master of Ceremonies David Case
Executive Vice President for Instruction

Welcome Dr. Brent Gregory
ECCC President

Introduction of Humanities Council Representative David Case

Remarks from Humanities Council Representative Molly McMillian
Program Assistant
Mississippi Humanities Council

Introduction of Honoree David Case

Program Bradley Robbins

"Modern Mythology in Professional Wrestling"

Remarks Dr. Brent Gregory

This special recognition was made possible through a grant from the Mississippi Humanities Council.

EAST CENTRAL
COMMUNITY COLLEGE